". . . yeah, I'm a senior, so what about it? So there's only another quarter left of school, and then I'm out on my own man. Can't wait until graduation night . . . o-o-o-ooo wee! Check it out man, I'll high step it on down front, grab my diploma, and say 'right-on!!!' Then I'll split. S'pose I wouldn't know where I was going though. Before, all I did was hang around with my homeboys. Heh, I could always find somebody at a game, at a party, at the concerts, or even killing the "munchies" at Burger King, dig it!!! But later it's going to be different. Everybody's going to be trying to make it on their own, check it out! Well, heh, I'm going to have to split, 'cause that was the tardy bell and this 'OPERATION GET MAMA' is a hassle (if you know what I mean.) Later!!!

". . . right here in this scene you see Carol Carraway. She looks like she's thinking that someone is telling a 'fantastic STORY!' Next to her is Lisa Wagner. With that look in her eyes, I don't think! would turn my back to her like Kenneth Bizor is doing. By the way Ken, your story must not be too interesting, 'cause Roderick Walker is looking at you kind of funny too (Smile)!"

"Uhh ohh! There's a lady with a voice that makes you wanna move! In case you don't know who she is, she goes by the name of Sherry Wilson. (Look out Shirley Caesar!) In the middle is Linda Geiger, who is talented in areas other than acting. And again, there's Carol rapping hard!!!"

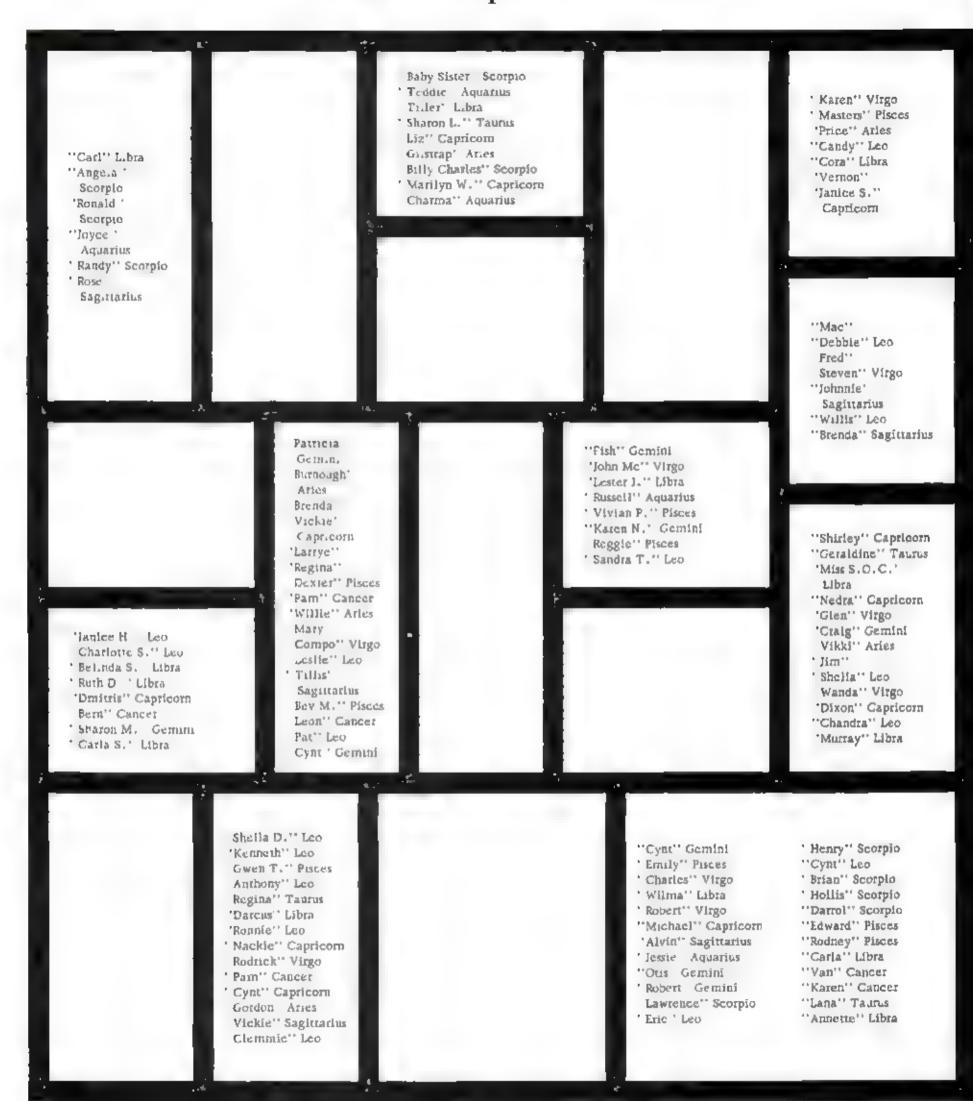

"Well people, that's all of the sneak preview that we have of the Amen's Corner. I'm very sure that everyone who saw the play enjoyed it thoroughly. By the way, this play was organized by both Ms. Carolyn Tobola and Mr. Pena. Since the play was so beautiful, we know that they spent long and tiring hours in preparing for it. Thanks for a job well done!"
